Customised to your needs

Course location:

Customised to your needs

Support, growth and development are essential for all leaders, but gendered differences create unique opportunities and challenges for women. This course builds skills and mindsets to succeed, and creates a platform for you to engage with a network of peers and senior mentors. You will develop confidence, influence and effective leadership strategies.

This course is run with the Geneva Leadership Alliance, a first-of-its-kind partnership that brings together in-depth understanding of peace, security and policy issues at the GCSP, as well as over 40 years of research and expertise developing leaders through the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL).

COURSE FOCUS:

This course teaches participants the latest innovations in leadership education on leading self and others in the art and tactics of influence. It equips them to use the knowledge and skills in a supportive and creative environment.

GCSP's location in the heart of international Geneva enables us to bring together a diverse range of participants from across sectors, and international leaders as role models and mentors.

COURSE BENEFITS

This course equips you with the latest innovations in leadership education on leading self and others and the art and tactics of influence, enabling you to:

- discover and practice tools and techniques to effectively lead, influence, and collaboratively engage with others
- deepen your perception of yourself,
- develop your confidence,
- create a strategy for your career growth and,
- establish a network of like-minded professionals.

Testimonial from a past participant

“ This is the first women's course that I ever attended. It has been one of the best learning experiences I've had. We really learnt from each other, and we had mentors who were also excellent. It gave me an insight into things I was doing well and areas for development and improvement.
