

Publish With Us

Contribute to our publication series for the unique opportunity to share policy-relevant analysis with a global audience of policymakers, practitioners and experts in the security policy field.

WHAT WE OFFER

The Geneva Centre for Security Policy provides an established platform for rigorous and accessible analysis on the most pressing security challenges. Through our publication series, authors contribute to policy debates, inform decision-makers, and engage with a diverse international community of experts.

WHY CONTRIBUTE?

- Reach a global network of scholars, policy- and decision-makers in international security
 - 8'500+ subscribers to our newsletters
 - 80'000+ followers on our social media
 - 45'000+ views on our publication webpages
 - Publications archived with the Swiss National Library
- Contribute to global research agenda, policy debates and to knowledge production on today's most pressing security challenges.
- Benefit from editorial support and professional design
- Dissemination through events, networks and digital platforms.

OUR PUBLICATION SERIES

We host 5 publication series, offering different formats for policy-relevant analysis.

- Geneva Papers: analyse international security issues through an approach that combines policy analysis with academic rigor.
 - 10'000 words
 - Ideal for: in-depth research and theoretically informed policy advice.
- Strategic Security Analyses: examine a current security issue with reference to concrete examples and Policy-oriented analysis.
 - 5'000 words
 - Ideal for: detailed case studies and applied strategic analysis.

- Policy Briefs: provide solid analysis of a policy challenge with a high-level of granularity to inform policy- and decision-making.
 - 3'500 words
 - Ideal for: targeted and actionable policy recommendations on current issues
- In Focus: highlight emerging and cutting-edge issues, identify weak signals appearing on the horizon and suggest possible innovation to address them.
 - 1'200 words.
 - Ideal for: early insights on emerging or underexplored topics
- Tailored Studies: respond to specific requests for written analysis and policy advice tailored to the needs of partner.
 - Case-by-case

RECENT CONTRIBUTIONS

- Goeconomic Turn in the US-EU Relationship by Ali Ahmadi
- What Self-driving Car Operations can Teach us about Incorporating AI into Weapons Systems by Mary L. Cummings
- Monitoring Demilitarised Zones in the Age of Uncrewed and AI Systems: Lessons from the Korean DMZ by Michael M. Bosack
- “Due Regard” in Outer Space – a Lost Cause? by Kai Uwe-Schrogl
- The International Security and Military Implications of Agentic AI by Jean-Marc Rickli and Tobias Knappe

HOW TO CONTRIBUTE

The publications team will assess whether the proposal matches one of our publication series and, if selected, will guide authors through the next steps of the publication process.

Send a short abstract together with a brief biography to: publications@gcsp.ch

Preferred Topics:

- Geopolitics and Global Order
- Regional Security Dynamics
- Emerging Security Challenges
- Technology and International Security
- Defence Policy
- Multilateralism, Diplomacy and Global Governance
- Conflict Prevention, Mediation and Peacebuilding
- Geoeconomics
- Human and Environmental Security

Contact

For more information on our publication series visit:

www.gcsp.ch/Publication-series

